Date: 6/27/23

Attendees: Kevin Lawrence (chair), Donna Stone (bookkeeper), Kenneth Cornell
Karen Snell- Guest

Meeting called to order: 7:00

Review of current lot/cremation documentation:

1 ½ by 1 ½ by two feet - cremation

Mrs. Snell purchased lots 12-15 in section H of the New Center Cemetery.

Sue Montross has arranged to have the remains of her son Kyle buried on July 13, 2023.

Agenda

Old Business

Review of the May 30, 2023 Meeting Minutes- (LINK) Kevin motioned to accept the minutes as written. Ken seconded the motion. All in favor.

On June 12, 2023, the Trustees conducted a virtual vote to allow Kevin to purchase ($69.00) five gallons of D2 cleaner to clean gravestones. Motion made by Kevin. Donna seconded the motion. All in favor.

New Business

** Lime distributor- 800 pounds for the first go. 2400 est.

Pelletized Lime is available at Tractor Supply for $5.99/40-pound bag. When we settle on a date we can have the lime delivered to the East Washington Cemetery.

After seeking the advice of the Town's Selectmen the trustees voted (Donna-motion, Kevin-seconded the motion) to add additional responsibilities to Noah's current job description to include preparing the plots for cremation burial services. He will perform the required functions before and after burials to ensure they conclude without complications.

Noah delivered the hardpack for grave repairs at New Center and EW cemeteries.

We received notification that David Clark, who was interned in 2021, is an Army Veteran. Kevin placed a flag and holder at his gravesite. Cremation Garden #29.

Ken and Kevin discussed the tree removal needs at the cemeteries. They have reached out to landowners and contractors for the tree removal.

Kevin and Ken will schedule a date to place the new cornerstones and to spray the new mold remover products on select gravestones at all three cemeteries.
